Join Mother Goose, Bo Peep, Miss Muffet, Red Riding Hood, Goldilocks, and all of your favorite storybook characters as The Star Theatre presents the music theatre production of Babes in Toyland, December 1st through 3rd at 7 p.m., and December 3rd, 4th at 2 p.m.

This is a perfect show for both children and adults who love the colorful characters, disarming honesty and playful feelings in Mother Goose nursery rhymes. Although no one can explain the appeal of these nonsensical rhymes over the years, Mother Goose can be traced as far back as 1697 in France.

There are many wonderful Mother Goose characters in our imaginative show who help bring alive the story of Uncle Barnaby's attempt to steal the Toyshop from Jane and Alan.

Babes in Toyland is under the direction of Jan Stoneburner. The music is directed by Alan Lortz and Mallory Guined. Babes in Toyland is produced by special arrangement with The Dramatic Publishing Company of Woodstock, IL., music by Victor Herbert, libretto and lyrics adopted by Ruth Perry with Ann Smit and Susan Carle from the original by Glenn MacDonough. Babes in Toyland is sponsored by Marion Technical College, The First Citizens National Bank, and The Ohio State University at Marion.
